Deadline: Applications must be submitted by 9am, Monday 26 July

Selection process: An awarding committee of Bournemouth University staff and Trustees from Lewis-Manning Hospice Care will review applications. Successful applicants will be invited to attend an interview in early September 2021. This will allow time for successful applicants to decide if they would like to write their literature review about an aspect of palliative and end of life care, and/or identify an idea for the final year interprofessional service improvement project.

The deadline for applications is 31 August (September entrants) or 30 November (January entrants). Subject to available funds, the deadline may be extended and publicised through the scholarship webpages. Students who are shortlisted may be invited to an audition. All music scholars are expected to attend weekly lessons with one of the University's specialist tutors, to attend ensembles and to participate in concerts and recitals.

7.1 Students must be fully enrolled at the time that the scholarship payment is due. No payment will be made to students who have interrupted or suspended their studies. Students who withdraw prior to the payment date will not be entitled to a pro-rata payment. Enrolment status is checked by the Finance and Performance Team on a monthly basis before triggering card payments and a termly basis for fee waivers.

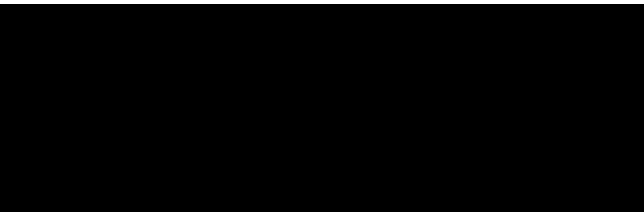

7.2 If a scholarship recipient chooses to suspend their study their scholarship will be frozen. Payments commensurate with the suspension will be made. For further information see the scholarship webpage.

- 9.2 Financial control measures assume the regular checking of a 'random' sample of automatically assessed awards on a monthly basis. Competitive (by application) scholarships will be approved by default on receipt of the award shortlist and selection of the successful recipient(s).
- 10.1 Scholarships will be reviewed on a regular basis and the University reserves the right to review, amend, and introduce new awards and to cease the award of scholarships at any time. A revised (minor) version of this document will be published to take account of any changes to our provision, the terms, conditions & eligibility.
- 10.2 To ensure compliance with Competition & Markets Authority guidance in relation to the accuracy of information, the only permitted changes to online and printed information are through the Scholarships Implementation Group and from a major or minor version of this Policy & Process document. All changes will be approved by the Director of M&C as Service Owner.
